

Deepening Our Faith Journey,

Week #4: October 4, 2015

Thought for the week: This week, is keeping watch over the sheep, and sees a bush that is burning, but is not consumed. Moses turns towards the bush to find out more of what is going on. God gets Moses' attention, and then God begins to speak...

How is God getting my attention? What is God using... Illness? Strained relationships? Struggles at work or school? God does not necessarily cause these things, but God gets our attention and uses them in our lives.

An exercise to try this week: When God calls Moses to lead the people out of Israel, Moses comes up with excuse after excuse. I can't do this, and I don't have the answer for that....Make an effort to complain less this week. When you find yourself complaining about a situation, stop yourself and look for blessings instead. Certainly the world is full of heartache, violence and suffering (which can lead us to action) but make an effort this week to see God's adequacies, and to talk less about the inadequacies within us and around us.

This week's daily readings:

Sunday, Exodus 3:1-15

Monday, Exodus 3:16-22

Tuesday, Exodus 4:1-9

Wednesday, Exodus 4:10-23

Thursday, Exodus 9:13-10:20

Friday, Exodus 10:21-11:10, 12:29-32

Saturday, Exodus 12:33-42

Questions to ask as you read:

What is God doing? What questions do I have about God's activities?

What are people doing?

As I listen for God's voice, what is God asking me to do, change or become?

I invite you to print this sheet and place in your Bible.
